GENERAL Eisenhower's speech fitted the occasion. It will not be read and memorized by this generation of American schoolboys and passed down by them, proudly, to their sons and daughters. It was not a great speech. If it gave the impression at times of dividing responsibility for the failure of the United States, that was natural enough from one in whom piety mingles with a fervent pride in the destiny of the nation he now leads. From the version of the speech available here, it is a fair judgment that President Truman could have said much the same thing without inconsistency; and has, indeed, often said much the same thing. And from this it may be argued that a General Eisenhower's Administration there will be policy continuity, with differences of emphasis but not of principle. It could hardly be otherwise. In general, U.S. policy under Mr. Truman established itself in the United States and half the world's reversal in any important part would involve little short of revolutionary consequences in the economic, social and political affairs of some great States and many small ones.

THE difference in emphasis may be of course, and by shifting and even endangering the whole equilibrium of U.S. policy in relation to the world allied to America. Exactly a week before President Eisenhower made his inaugural address, Representative Taylor, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said that the new President might cancel Mr. Truman's budget request for $7,000,000, in new foreign aid appropriations; and expressed the opinion that if he did not, Congress might refuse to vote the new funds. "I don't see how we could do anything else, because there is no case for new funds." On that same day, General Eisenhower conferred with all the leading members of his Administration, and the fact that Mr. Joseph Dodge, the new director of the Budget, was seen to be on his feet whenever the door of the conference room was opened, has given rise to the speculation that proposals for the cutting of Mr. Truman's $7,000,000 budget were under discussion. A difference of emphasis in foreign aid, to the expected tune of some $4 to $5,000,000, might help the Republicans to come near to their goal of a balanced budget but would have a most unbalancing effect upon the budgets, the rearmament policy, and the stability of several European and some Middle East States.

IT will not come to that if President Eisenhower can help it. He is seen to be in the hands of Mr. Dulles, at Secretary of State, with Mr. Acheson, the head of the Mutual Security Agency, to Europe at the end of this month to find out what are the "political trends" and what is the relationship of American aid to the North Atlantic Alliance. It is said that these questions should be considered as so far unanswered; but it is likely that Mr. Dulles will be mainly concerned to calculate the probable conduct of France, especially towards the E.D.C. Treaty, and to see what should be done to ensure Germany's swift rearmament. The emphasis here, too, may be changed at risk to the social and political stability of France, if not of some other countries. For if the Democrats in their day passed German rearmament as less urgent than the Republicans want it today, the Republicans, it would seem, are prepared to go much further to get it. France, presumably, must lump it if she cannot like it.

FOREIGN aid and the part of Germany in European defense are not the only questions in principle, of continuity of policy from the Democratic to the Republican regime; and of possibly decisive change in emphasis. There will be other examples. Acheson may provide one of them. There is a rumor that Mr. Dulles may go on, in the spring, to India, Pakistan and other Asian countries before working out his Department's plans in relation to China and the rest of Asia. Another leakage from the "secret" talks during Mr. Churchill's visit to America, indicates that the British Premier advocated a defensive organization for South-East Asia on the lines of the Atlantic Pact. Mr. Dulles rejected the idea as unwarrantable as long as America and Britain could not agree on a common policy towards Peking, and gave the impression of being firmer on this question than Mr. Truman and Mr. Acheson were. But that issue, like the others, awaits the responsible judgment of President Eisenhower, who knows the difference between a thoughtfully calculated goal and apocalyptic assertion of the stimulus of emergency.

Political Currents Seep into Knesset Jobless Debate

POST Knesset Correspondent

The Knesset began a seven-hour debate on unemployment yesterday, and from the start, political undercurrents tended to carry the speakers somewhat off the main theme. The Government was given advice in rather general terms, which varied from Mr. Shmuel Dayan's (Mapai) demand to foster agricultural settlement by force if necessary, to a proposal to abolish trade restrictions on the assumption that private enterprise would do better than Government-owned public works — a suggestion defended by Mr. Haim Arlos (General Zionists), a former general secretary of the Farmers' Federation.

Two main trends were apparent in the discussion. The Government's policy of restoring the Hitler order and establishing bloody Fascist regimes permeated by a spirit of racial bigotry, including anti-Semitism. "Supporting such policies and assisting their realization," the Zionists expose themselves not only as the enemies of peace and democracy but also as enemies of the strata of Jewish working people," the weekly said.

Discussing the Joint at length, the "New Times" said that the "European section after the war was headed by an American intelligence agent, Dr. Joseph Schwartz."

The editorial reviewed Zionism from its earliest days, saying that before World War I it had a pro-German orientation and close contact with Kaiser Wilhelm's government. It said that Polish Zionists during the First World War collaborated with German invaders and those in Russia expressed loyalty to the Czar. But then Zionists began to acquire a pro-British line. Dr. Chaim Weizmann was mentioned in this connection.

American supporters of Zionism who were named, included Mr. Nathan Harold (?) and Mr. Robert Spaid. The "New Times" said that British imperialism established Zionism in the Middle East as a tool for its own ends. The heads of Russian Zionism were "Kerensky and others who ran away from Russia after the revolution and came to the United States Office and Intelligence Service."

The article stressed that most of the doctors involved in the plot to kill Soviet leaders "were connected with the international Jewish bourgeois organization, Joint, set up by the American intelligence service."

E. German Press Warns Jews of Punishment

BERLIN, Wednesday. — The "National Zeitung," organ of the East German National Democratic Party, today warned Jews that they will be punished if they ally themselves with "American warmongers."

The National Democratic Party is known as the party of "little Nazis," and frankly appeals to former Nazis and militarists to make Germany a world power through a Soviet alliance.

"While in West Germany Jews are again threatened openly by Fascists, people in the German Democratic Republic and in the democratic sector of Berlin and in all People's Democracies are educated in a spirit of friendship of peoples which will not tolerate anti-Semitism," the paper said.

"The constitutional rights of all citizens are clearly fixed in these nations without discrimination against race or creed. However, whoever sinks so low as to disturb peaceful reconstruction in these lands on the orders of American warmongers will be punished according to law regardless of race or creed."

The warning in German is an article criticizing Israel as an aggressive base of the U.S. in the Middle East. Other East German newspapers carried similar articles. The same headline — "Israel in the Wake of the U.S." — was carried by all newspapers, showing that the article had been "planted" by the Soviet zone propaganda office.

The article said the U.S. was giving dollar grants to Israel in return for the latter's conversion into an American base, the conversion of the Jewish people into American monopoly and its inclusion into the U.S. "war policy."

Monmouth, ten Jewish refugees arrived in West Berlin today, taking the number of such escapees from the East to the last five days to 65.

In East Berlin, the "Victims of Nazism" committee today announced that the four Jewish communist leaders headed by Mr. Julius Meyer, who escaped to West Berlin last Thursday, had been expelled from the ranks. The Communist-sponsored organization, described them as "Zionist agents who have joined their employers at the U.S. Embassy in West Berlin."

American supporters of Zionism who were named, included Mr. Nathan Harold (?) and Mr. Robert Spaid. The "New Times" said that British imperialism established Zionism in the Middle East as a tool for its own ends.

The heads of Russian Zionism were "Kerensky and others who ran away from Russia after the revolution and came to the United States Office and Intelligence Service."

The article stressed that most of the doctors involved in the plot to kill Soviet leaders "were connected with the international Jewish bourgeois organization, Joint, set up by the American intelligence service."

Soviet Medico Awarded For 'Unmasking' Doctors

LONDON, Wednesday. — A "True" broadcast last night said Dr. Lydia F. Timashuk has been awarded the Order of Lenin by the Supreme Soviet for help in unmasking the doctors who last week were accused of plotting to murder Soviet leaders.

Dr. Timashuk, known outside the Soviet Union, informed sources here said the award indicated the conviction of the plot is officially proceeding. (UP, Reuter)

War to Doom World Capitalism, Mikhalov

LONDON, Wednesday (Reuter). — Mr. N. Mikhalov, General Secretary of the Komintern (Young Communist League), told cheering delegates at the Lenin memorial meeting in Moscow's Bolshoi Theatre tonight that a new world war "would inevitably lead to the collapse of the whole capitalist system."

Mikhalov, first speaker at this traditional meeting celebrating the anniversary of Lenin's death in 1924, declared, "Let the imperialist schemers who are drawing up plans for an attack against the U.S.S.R. not forget the lesson of history."

Moscow Radio broadcast the meeting, which was attended by leading figures of the Communist Party and representatives of the armed forces.

Mikhalov reiterated Russia's "belief in the co-existence and peaceful cooperation" of the socialist and capitalist worlds on the basis of the teachings of Lenin, founder of the Soviet state. But he alleged that the U.S. was determined to carry on with her "war plans."

Ties with US Will Now Be Stronger—Rosen

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — "We are certain that the traditional affinity between the U.S. and the State of Israel will be strengthened in the new era which began yesterday with the inauguration of President Eisenhower," the Minister of Justice, Mr. Pinhas Rosen said on his arrival at the Government at a festive meeting of the Israel-American Friendship League. It was held in a packed hall of the Histadrut Education Centre here. Mr. Menachem Begin, U.S. Ambassador, and Mr. Gershon Agron, Editor of The Jerusalem Post were the other speakers.

It was fortunate for democracy generally and for the American people that at such troubled times a man of General Eisenhower's stature would lead them, Mr. Rosen said.

There was no doubt that the new President, his Secretary of State and the majority of the Congress were vitally interested in the development and success of the Jewish State.

Mr. Davis said that celebrating the inauguration of the 34th President of the U.S. did honour to the American people and "democracy as practised by my countrymen in the exercise of their hard-earned and zealously-guarded freedom."

Mr. Agron dwelt on the striking similarity between the early years of the Jewish State and the early years of the United States. The founders of both republics were few, and both faced the many challenges of the world. Both countries had financial and security difficulties, problems of absorption of immigrants, and so on.

Mr. Agron pointed out that in the East-West conflict Israel had first thought of neutrality, but soon found that that form of calous objectivity was no answer to the world's most serious problem, the present policy, meant that the country felt itself free to choose between good and evil, such choice would in fact have to be based on a moral basis.

A message of congratulations on behalf of the Israel-American League was sent tonight to President Eisenhower.

The meeting was chaired by Mr. S.E. Abramov and Dr. A. Ankorin, Chairman and Tel Aviv branches of the League, respectively.

Italian Chamber Passes Electoral Reform Measure

ROME, Wednesday. — Premier Alcide De Gasperi won a vote of confidence in the Lower House today by 339 votes to 25. In a second ballot the House approved the electoral reform bill, on which the confidence vote was based, by 332 votes to 17.

The session had lasted from 9:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. last night following a rumour in the House created by Communist and left-wing Socialist Deputies after one of their number claimed he had been attacked outside by police.

Communist and Neofascist Deputies left the House before the confidence vote, protesting against the proposed reform and did not participate in either vote. The bill must still be passed by the Senate.

More than 2,000 people were detained in Rome yesterday as Communist and Socialist carried their bitter struggle against the reform into the streets. Jeopardies of armed police charged into the demonstrators converging on Parliament.

The Communist-led labour conference called for a general strike in Rome yesterday from 3 p.m. to midnight to support their deputies in the Chamber. The strike was called off by the police.

Outside the Chamber, Communist Deputies charged at the Government benches. Others tried to hold them back, but the police charged in. To still the pandemonium, the House was cleared and walked out. The 60-hour session was suspended for 24 hours. (AP, Reuter)

Adenauer to See Ike Next Spring

BERLIN, Wednesday (Reuter). — Chancellor Adenauer said here today he expected to visit President Eisenhower in the U.S. this spring.

Talking to reporters, Dr. Adenauer recalled that he met Mr. Eisenhower last year in Germany. "I would welcome a meeting again in the United States," he added.

President Eisenhower's speech at his inauguration yesterday was "a first-class contribution to the stabilization of world peace," he said.

Usually reliable sources said the new U.S. Secretary of State, Mr. John Foster Dulles, was expected to bring an invitation from Mr. Eisenhower on his visit to Bonn early next month.

U.S. Jewish Labour Group Pickets Soviet Embassy

WASHINGTON, Wednesday (AP). — A delegation representing groups sponsored by the Jewish Labour Committee today picketed the Soviet Embassy after leaving a memorandum with the Embassy protesting Soviet anti-Semitism.

The Secretary to Ambassador George Zarubin described the Committee's telegraphed request for an appointment as "insulting." The delegation was led by Mr. Adolph Held, Chairman of the Committee.

The last point is what worries authorities here. There is little doubt that the plotters and their allies in former military circles regarded themselves as German nationalists fully devoted to the cause of the re-establishment of the Reich Independent of all interests of occupying powers, East or West.

U.S. Cabinet Approved Except for Wilson

WASHINGTON, Wednesday (Reuter). — The Senate today approved President Eisenhower's Cabinet — except for Mr. Charles E. Wilson, who has been nominated Secretary of Defense. Mr. Eisenhower has not yet asked for the approval of Mr. Wilson because his position has been challenged.

Mr. Wilson, a former General Motors executive, has refused to give up a substantial holding of stock in the company, which has huge defense contracts. Federal law controlling financial interests of government members may therefore bar his appointment.

Independent Senator Wayne Morse asserted today that President Eisenhower should not go through with his plan to nominate Mr. Wilson although the White House said that the President still has the intention.

The Cabinet appointees confirmed are: Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles; Secretary of the Treasury, George Humphrey; Attorney-General, Herbert Brownell, Jr.; Postmaster-General, Arthur E. Summerfield; Secretary of the Interior, Douglas McKay; Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson; Secretary of Commerce, Sinclair Weeks and Secretary of Labour, Martin P. Durkin.

The Senate also confirmed the nomination of Mrs. Overholser Hobbs as Federal Security Administrator. This post is not of Cabinet rank but Mr. Eisenhower has said Mrs. Hobbs would sit in on Cabinet meetings.

Meanwhile, President Eisenhower got down to his first day's work at the White House. He held a meeting with his Cabinet after dawn today, when he received Attorney-General Herbert Brownell.

Mr. Eisenhower's "no appointment" statements on foreign policy in his inauguration speech commanded widespread Congressional support, according to observers. His next task is to prepare a "State of the Union" message which is expected to reveal how he will carry out the clean-up in home affairs which he pledged before his election.

It was announced today that President Eisenhower would hold a press conference in the White House which would be televised.

Truman Gets Great Ovation in Missouri

ST. LOUIS, Wednesday (UP). — Former President Harry Truman returned to his home state of Missouri today to join the army of unemployed and promising to "say what I please."

Mr. Truman, accompanied by his wife, rode in the presidential car borrowed from President Eisenhower into the station here to be greeted by a crowd of more than 1,000.

Addressing the throng from the platform of the car he said he did not realize he was being sent home in a "blaze of glory." "I shall never forget this if I live to be a 100, which is what I expect to do," he said.

The ovation Mr. Truman received was spontaneous and unorganized. Railway workers shouted, "You have always been our friend." Picnards echoed the slogan from the 1948 election campaign declaring, "We are still wild about Harry."

The crowd grew steadily during the half-hour he was saying goodbye to his friends.

He had been perched above an open car occupied by Attorney-General Brownell and his wife. Police searched him on the spot, and then took him away. They said he had three knives on him. Some time later police said he had not yet been charged and they did not know his name.

Zionist Aim: World Domination, Moscow

MOSCOW, Wednesday (AP). — The "New Times" in its current issue today accused Zionists as being enemies of the Russian people and the American people and the American imperialist.

It said that the Zionists are endeavouring to dominate the world and at the same time are actually supporting everything which contributes to this policy, in particular the policy of restoring the Hitler order and establishing bloody Fascist regimes permeated by a spirit of racial bigotry, including anti-Semitism.

"Supporting such policies and assisting their realization," the Zionists expose themselves not only as the enemies of peace and democracy but also as enemies of the strata of Jewish working people," the weekly said.

E. Germany Probes Jewish Descent

POST Correspondent
AMSTERDAM, Wednesday. — General measures are being prepared against the Jews in Eastern Germany. Dr. Theodor Friedmann, Chairman of the Organisation of Free Lawyers in West Berlin, said here last week. Official investigations are being made as to who is of Jewish descent, Jewish property is registered, and with the help of the police, the names of Jewish lawyers are being compiled.

In the opinion of Dr. Friedmann, no racial hatred is at the basis of these measures, which are merely directed against the class of "monopoly capitalists," while poorer Jews are left unmolested.

Dr. Friedmann, who is partly of Jewish descent, gave a number of lectures in Holland on "Law and Justice in Eastern Germany" and was invited to the Netherlands section of the International Lawyers' Congress. His organization, which was established some six years ago, collects facts on illegal actions and crimes committed by residents of Eastern Germany so that, when the time arrives, the allegations may be brought to court. Today, it employs a staff of 60 including 10 lawyers, and it has compiled a card index already containing some 60,000 names.

London Reluctant to Release Details of Nazi Arrests

By GEORGE LICHTHEIM
POST Correspondent
LONDON, Wednesday. — There is an impression here that Whitehall is reluctant to release more information about last week's British zone arrests for fear of making the Bonn Government's position needlessly difficult.

Latest disclosures show that Vice-Chancellor Blücher's Free Democratic Party, which is an essential part of Adenauer's majority, was more heavily infiltrated than the Socialists, and willing to admit, but presently for this reason only a minimum of information is being released.

To counter the growing German press campaign against British control authorities, some pieces of evidence have been made public. Thus, the Germans are now aware that all the confidential papers of Blücher's party were passed on to a Düsseldorf firm of which arch-plotters Naumann was a partner.

Raises Communist Issue
This may have been an unintentional leak, but taken in conjunction with the Naumann group's military contacts, it raises questions whether any secret communication to the Federal Government can be regarded as secure from Nazi and therefore Communist spy agencies.

The last point is what worries authorities here. There is little doubt that the plotters and their allies in former military circles regarded themselves as German nationalists fully devoted to the cause of the re-establishment of the Reich Independent of all interests of occupying powers, East or West.

E. GERMAN TRADE GROUP TO CAIRO

BERLIN, Wednesday (AP). — A delegation of the German Democratic Republic left for Cairo with a view to concluding an economic co-operation agreement with the Egyptian Government.

The Secretary to Ambassador George Zarubin described the Committee's telegraphed request for an appointment as "insulting." The delegation was led by Mr. Adolph Held, Chairman of the Committee.

Israel, ICEM Sign Accord on Refugees

GENEVA, Wednesday (AP). — The Inter-Governmental Committee for European Migration has signed a new agreement with the Israel Government to assist Jewish refugees, again on the move as a result of anti-Semitism in Eastern Europe.

The new agreement sets up two categories of Jewish refugees eligible for assistance in reaching Israel, those who leave their country of citizenship after January 1, 1952, and those who have found it impossible to establish themselves in Europe.

The present agreement covers the movements of 2,000 refugees to Israel with ICEM's help, but provides for a new agreement "should circumstances warrant it" prior to the end of the agreement.

Top French Leaders To Go to London, U.S.

PARIS, Wednesday (UP). — Premier Rene Mayer and other high officials of the French Government will visit Washington next month to appeal for continued American financial aid and probably to call on President Eisenhower for greater help in Indo-China. Plans for the mission were announced today. The group will visit Britain before going on.

The announcement said the mission was part of France's campaign to find and expand markets for French products to ease the threat of an economic crisis.

But informed sources said France will probably ask in addition to financial aid and help in Indo-China, for an increased voice in Mediterranean affairs. In Britain, Mr. Mayer is expected to consult with Prime Minister Churchill in an effort to discover what the latter discussed with President Eisenhower on his recent visit to the U.S.

These sources said Mr. Mayer hopes to line up Britain behind the French requests. It was also announced that Mr. Pierre Abelin, former Secretary of State for Finance, will travel to South-East Asia at the same time to explore the possibilities of selling more goods.

German Body Urges Quick Payment to Israel

HAMBURG, Wednesday (AP). — The "Peace with Israel" organization announced today that 60 prominent Germans have signed its public appeal for quick ratification of the Bonn reparations agreement to pay Israel $770m. for losses suffered under the Nazis.

13 U.S. Communists Guilty of Conspiracy

NEW YORK, Wednesday (Reuter). — A Federal Jury today found 13 second-rank Communist leaders guilty of conspiracy. The jury reached a verdict after deliberating for nearly seven days in a trial that lasted eight and a half months.

They were charged with conspiring to teach and advocate the overthrow of the Federal Government.

Duty to Help All Jews—Elath

LONDON, Wednesday (RNA) — Mr. Elath, the Israeli Ambassador, addressing the Anglo-Israel Association on Monday night, said that in recent weeks Israel's international relations had suffered from a: organized attack on the Jewish State and its ideological foundations.

"Before the dust had settled on the events in France, the Jewish people the world over suffered an even greater shock from the fresh attack delivered from Moscow."

"I know that my people have no desire whatever to interfere in the domestic affairs of any other country. I have no shadow of a doubt of the complete loyalty of Jewish citizens of the People's Democracies," he said.

"Wherever Jews are attacked and persecuted because of their Jewishness, it is our duty to help them to the limit of our power."

Jewish Writer Hits Soviet Charges

NEW YORK, Wednesday (INA) — The noted Yiddish writer, E.Z. Goldberg, who is usually friendly to the Soviet Union, has published an article in "Der Tag" declaring that no-one could convince him that Solomon Mikhoels was a spy, and that he would not believe it even though Mikhoels were alive and confessed.

Mikhoels, late Director of the Moscow Yiddish Theatre, was accused in Moscow last week of having acted as agent between the "Joint" in France, the Jewish people the world over suffered an even greater shock from the fresh attack delivered from Moscow."

Terminating the charges "barbaric," Mr. Goldberg said that he also knew Dr. Shmelovitch, also charged as an agent and spy. "It is ridiculous to accuse such venerated persons of espionage."

Vienna Left Party Splits Over Anti-Semitism

VIENNA, Wednesday (AFP) — "Jewish Unity," an extreme left organization, has broken off relations with the Austrian Communist Party. They had agreed to contest the February elections together.

A leaflet issued by "Jewish Unity," declares, "He who votes Communist votes for the hanging of the Jews." Communism is now no different from Nazism, it said.

6,500 Huts and Houses Built in Ma'abarot

The Ministry of Labour has constructed 6,500 wooden and stone dwelling units thus far, in its plan to rid the ma'abarot of tents. Another 1,013 units will have been constructed by March and, with that, the problem ended, it was announced officially yesterday. Special arrangements have been made to ease the problem of those families who must wait for their new homes.

POST OFFICE SAFE STOLEN IN JAFFA

TEL AVIV, Wednesday (ITIM) — A safe containing IL 8,000 was stolen on Saturday from the office of a garage of the Southern District Post Office, at Rehov 377 in the Abu Kheir quarter in Jaffa.

The thieves reportedly entered the office by breaking down the iron door, and carried off the safe measuring 80x40 centimetres. Five young suspects have been detained.

J.E.C. to Provide Current After Noon

The Jerusalem Electric and Public Service Corporation will continue to supply a limited amount of current during the peak afternoon hours to augment the regular supply transmitted to the capital by the Palestine Electric Corporation and the Shikmona Cement Works, it was learned yesterday.

This announcement follows rumours that the company was contemplating a complete stoppage to facilitate a general overhaul of the old equipment.

A spokesman stated that the company has been supplying more than 1,000 kw. during the peak hours of consumption and will continue even after the P.E.C. and Shikmona increase their supply in about a fortnight. Yesterday there was a break in supply in some quarters between 4.30 and 5 p.m.

They now supply about 8,000 kw. and are scheduled to increase this to about 7,000.

The Jerusalem company spokesman said it is clear, however, that even the 1,000 kw. would not be supplied if a breakdown occurred on the limited equipment producing the supplementary supply.

The company is also continuing its negotiations with the Histadrut over proposed disconnection.

U.S. Wheat for Egyptian Economic, Social Reforms

CAIRO, Wednesday (UP) — The U.S. will supply Egypt with more than $8m. worth of critically needed wheat on condition Egypt spends revenue from the local sales of grain on internal economic and social reforms, it was reliably reported here recently.

Well-informed quarters said negotiations for the project, which to a certain extent would be within the framework of the Point Four programme, were under way between Egyptian and U.S. officials, but the latter refused comment, calling the whole matter "premature."

U.S. Israel Friendship

"H'sarets" (Independent) thinks that the continuity in American Foreign Policy will be preserved notwithstanding the strong isolationist trends in the G.O.P. No responsible American leader for a moment considers that his country might give up its worldwide obligations and return to isolationism.

The paper concludes by emphasizing the traditional friendship nursed by people in Israel toward the U.S. which is connected with common ideals: freedom of the individual in a democratic society.

"Hatsot" (Mishra) deals with the deterioration of the situation on our frontiers, and says that organized infiltration demonstrates the seriousness of the situation. The agreement with Jordan in its present form merely helped the infiltrators, who were aided and defended by the Jordan forces, while it made energetic Israel counteraction impossible.

AG's Opinion On Rokach's Posts

Since the Supreme Court has held that person may not at the same time be a Municipal Councillor and a teacher in a public school, it is likely that the Court would also rule against a person holding simultaneously the office of Councillor and Minister, Mr. H. Cohen, the Attorney-General, said at a press conference in Jerusalem on Monday.

The reference was to Mr. I. Rokach, Minister of Interior,
